HISTORICAL SOCIETY of PALM BEACH COUNTY

JUDGE JAMES R. KNOTT HISTORICAL CONTRIBUTION AWARD

Established in 1989, this annual award recognizes the achievements of an individual or organization that has contributed to the preservation, promotion or enrichment of Palm Beach County history. This contribution should enrich Palm Beach County residents for generations to come.

The award honors and is named for the late Honorable Judge James R. Knott who served as President of the Society from 1957 to 1969. Judge Knott is fondly remembered as a dedicated historian, author of the Brown Wrapper newspaper series and three books on the history of our area.

GUIDELINES FOR NOMINATIONS

Who may nominate? Anyone interested in Palm Beach County history may identify an individual or organization that they believe is an appropriate candidate, excluding an organization of which they are an officer, member, or employee. Nominations must be submitted on forms provided by the HSPBC, and anonymous nominations will not be accepted.

Who is eligible for nomination? The goal of this award is to recognize individuals or organizations for their contributions to the history of our county, those that have worked to preserve, promote or enrich our history for future generations. Individuals must live in Palm Beach County and organizations must serve Palm Beach County.

How many nominees will be honored with the award? Generally, the award goes annually to a single individual or organization. However, if circumstances warrant, more than one individual or organization may be honored.

Confidentiality- Nominations for this award will be made through a public nomination process. Those submitting nominations must not inform nominees that their names have been submitted for consideration. All nominations remain the confidential property of the Historical Society of Palm Beach County.
